Grace started out as a budding gymnast as a youngster in China. But around the age of 10 a local badminton coach saw her and thought she had more potential as a badminton player rather than a gymnast. Grace loved the switch to badminton and worked her way on to the provincial team for Guang Xi by the age of 14. After 5 more years of hard work, Grace became a member of the Chinese National team in 1990. Grace played mixed doubles for Chinese National Team, but is also an accomplished doubles player as well.
